

Kenny Corrigan is a native of Southwick, Massachusetts, currently residing in New York City as a freelance dancer. He has studied in various forms of dance from acrobatics and ballet, to tap, jazz and hip-hop. Kenny received his BFA from Point Park University with a concentration in modern dance. Since then, he has worked with several dance companies such as Texture Contemporary Ballet, Bad Boys of Ballet, Sheep Meadow Dance Theatre, Freckled Sky and Buglisi Dance Theatre. Kenny was featured on Season 9 of Americas Got Talent with the group Bad Boys of Ballet, making it all the way to the Semi-Finals. Kenny has been fortunate to dance for artists such as Silentó, Neil Patrick Harris, Karlie Kloss, Harry Styles and Jimmy Fallon, to name a few. Kenny has toured through France with Sweetbird Productions, leading the show, “Best of Rock the Ballet”, as well as performing the role of Romeo in “Rasta Thomas’ Romeo and Juliet”. Most recently, Kenny performed throughout China and Taiwan with Christopher Wheeldon’s “An American in Paris” for their first international tour. He is grateful that his career has given him the opportunity to travel the world, and looks forward to seeing what the future has in store.
