

Alexandra Limeburg is delighted to return to NJCYB's Nutcracker after three years training at Miami City Ballet School. She performed in NJCYB's production of The Nutcracker from 2007-2015 dancing many roles including "Clara", "Spanish", and "Snow Queen". While in Miami she had the opportunity to learn many Balanchine ballets including "Raymonda Variations", and "Serenade", as well as participating in choreographic workshops. Most recently, she had the privilege to learn and perform Balanchine's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" with Miami City Ballet. She is thrilled to be performing the "Snow Pas de Deux" in the 20th anniversary of "The Nutcracker".
